

Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority

The Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority (CPRA) was created in 2005 as the single state entity with authority to articulate a clear statement of priorities to develop, implement, and enforce a comprehensive protection and restoration Coastal Master Plan for Louisiana.

Outreach & Engagement

The mission of CPRA's Outreach & Engagement Section is to establish strategic, consistent and coordinated outreach, engagement and communications to promote CPRA Master Plan projects, programs, and initiatives.

Louisiana's Comprehensive Master Plan for a Sustainable Coast

"This is Louisiana's plan: the best set of projects and programs to build land and reduce the risk of storm surge flooding to protect and secure our state, our citizens, and our resources. We know this plan does not do everything for everyone, but this plan accepts the reality that we don't have unlimited dollars or unlimited sediment to do what we need to do. And this plan identifies the best projects that can make the biggest impact." Gov. John Bel Edwards
