CONSTRUCTION MANAGEMENT AT-RISK
SELECTION REVIEW COMMITTEE CONFLICTS OF INTEREST ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Pursuant to La. R.S. 38:2225.2.4, the Coastal Protection and Restoration Authority, (“CPRA”) intends to utilize the construction management at risk project delivery method to contract for services for the project known as the Mid-Barataria Sediment Diversion Project (the “Project”). The undersigned, is duly authorized representative of _____. _____ is a Respondent to CPRA’s Request for Qualifications and is submitting a Statement of Qualifications to be considered as the CMAR Contractor for the Project (hereinafter “Respondent”).

In accordance with La. R.S. 38:2225.2.4, CPRA appointed a Selection Review Committee who will review the request for qualifications, score the Respondents, and recommend an award to a construction management at risk contractor. The following individuals have been selected by CPRA as a member of, or an alternate member of, the Selection Review Committee:

- (1) Christopher Knotts
- (2) Anthony Mumphrey
- (3) Victor Weston
- (4) Donald Klose
- (5) Harold Daigle
- (6) Jerry Carroll (alternate)
- (7) Mike Mayeux (alternate)

Conflict of Interest: Respondent should avoid any situation where personal and business relationships could have, or give the appearance of having, influence on any member of the Selection Review Committee. Avoiding impropriety and the appearance of it promotes the professional values of fairness, impartiality, a reliance on process, and making decisions based on the merits. Respondent must avoid actions, discussions and communications (oral or written) with any member of the Selection Review Committee that might be perceived as exerting influence over a Selection Review Committee member. In the event of a conflict of interest, potential or perceived conflict of interest, Respondent shall notify CPRA immediately.

I have read the conflicts of interest policy of CPRA set forth above and agree that Respondent will fully comply with its terms and conditions. If at any time Respondent becomes aware of any actual or potential conflicts of interest involving Respondent, Respondent will immediately notify CPRA in writing.

Acknowledged and Agreed:
